

"To refresh and uplift the world with our distinct beverages"

A woman wearing a wide-brimmed straw hat and a dark sleeveless top is seen from behind, holding hands with another person whose hand is visible in the foreground. They are standing on a sandy beach, looking out at a vibrant blue ocean under a bright, sunny sky with scattered white clouds. A palm tree frond is visible in the upper right corner, and a lush green island is in the distance.

Welcome to the CARIBbean

come journey with us...

The CARIBbean is the world's most exciting playground, a space and place where life and time are naturally and enthusiastically celebrated.

How it all began...

1926

Sir Gerald Wight, A Knight Bachelor (Kt. Bach), then director of Alstons & Co. which later became McEneaney Alstons Limited, served in the Second World War II. He was an enterprising man with an ingenious spirit, who had an idea that would reduce the country's dependence on oil and sugar.

1947

This led to the launch of the Caribbean Development Company (CDC), whose primary business would be to specialise in the brewing of first-class beer and glass bottles.

1950

First Carib comes off the bottling line and the rest as they say is history. Trinbagonians immediately embraced the flavour and it garnered rave reviews, as citizens ranked it better than some of the foreign beers they had otherwise grown accustomed to. This was a triumph since converting the market towards local was no small feat.

1961

Two other breweries in Grenada and St. Kitts were born.

1986

Anthony N. Sabga, Chairman of the ANSA Group purchases majority shares in McEneaney Alstons, forming the ANSA McAL Group.

TODAY

The entrepreneurial spirit lives on in Carib Brewery's legacy, as it continues to span generations. It remains the largest independent brewery in the Caribbean.

“Find a job that you love and you will never have to work a day in your life.”

Dr. Anthony N. Sabga, ORTT
1923-2017

A Caribbean Original

Much like the vibrant, eclectic mix of our Caribbean people, Carib is a combination of flavour and aromatics that blend perfectly to create a unique balance between malt and hops, sweet and bitter.. With a pale golden straw taste and rich head formation, Carib's medium-bodied mouth feel creates a semi-dry finish with just a hint of bitterness.
